

Recognizing of words in various context :- (कहाँ शब्द की शब्द शक्ति में पहचानना)

⇒ context clues give student an idea or hint of what an unfamiliar word might mean. such clues are found in both the text or illustration surrounding (around) the unknown word. context helpfulness of how much information they provide a readers.

Sometimes the context provides a direct explanation of the meaning of a new word. but not enough for the student to be certain of its meaning.

The five different types of context clues that can be used to infer a word's meaning are:

1. Definition - The author explains the meaning of the word in the sentence or selection.
2. Synonym - The Author uses a word similar in meaning.
3. Antonym - The author use a word ~~near~~ nearly opposite in meaning.
4. Example - The Author Provides one or more example. words or ideas.

5. General - The Author provides several words or statement that gives clues to the word's meaning.